

BEAUTY FOR ASHES IN THE MIDDLE EAST

They are living proof of Isaiah 61:3b,
“to give them a crown of beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, and a garment of praise in place of a spirit of despair. So they will be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified.”

Refugee kneels in his burned church on his first return visit.

Year after year of...Flight, Death, Destruction. Yet, on the ground in the most conflicted areas of the Middle East, beauty is arising out of ashes, joy for mourning, and a garment of praise for despair. Networks of Christian volunteers are striving to sustain community with the mentally challenged and their families. Over half of their national volunteer network in one country is internally displaced. Yet as they flee from place to place, they contact other network members to maintain relationships. They make a point to have group celebrations where they pray, worship, and enjoy one another.
